IN WANT OF SUPPLIES

State Buys Underclothing, War Department Has So Far Failed to Furnish Recruits

Richmond, July 1—Following the threat of Governor Stuart that he would remove the militia to some other site if sanitary conditions were not immediately improved, Superintendent Henry J. Cohn, of the Street Cleaning Department, covered Camp Henry C. Stuart with 200 men yesterday, while 2,000 soldiers lay idly in their tents or loitered on company street or in town. A few military details were put to work in digging shallow runways, and guards were placed about the stables. Superintendent Cohn was kept waiting many times while the military authorities were discussing what was needed. The city street force performed its own and military functions, and refuse was rapidly cleared away. The street cleaners followed upon the heels of the soldiers—who were not engaged in policing the camp as is done under army regulations.

In the afternoon the Governor held a conference with General C. C. Vaughan, Jr., and Maj. C. L. Wright and it was announced afterwards that inspection of the camp showed that work in improving the sanitary conditions and laying sewerage and water mains was progressing rapidly, in spite of the heavy rains, which have hampered the city forces. The inspection was made by Colonel Jo Lane Stern, inspector general, and Major Brown, of the Medical Corps, who made a thorough and exhaustive tour of the entire camp. It was stated that the trouble that had existed had been greatly reduced. Investigation showed that much of the land had been polluted, it was said, before the arrival of the soldiery, for which the city is not responsible.

In regard to the alleged insanitary condition of the camp, it is stated that not a single case of sickness other than minor ailments and disease from which the men were suffering when they arrived in Richmond, has been reported. The health of the soldiers has been good.

Within a little more than a week the city forces have laid two miles of water mains, three miles of sewer pipes installed electric lighting company, regimental and brigade headquarters, and flooded the whole camp with light. A large number of shower baths had been installed and put into working order by last night. A high military officer said that the camp is better now than most regular army camps, and another admitted that the city, in spite of the handicap of daily heavy rains, has done remarkably well in so short a space of time.

The First Regiment was mustered in yesterday, and the physical examination of all enlisted men has been completed. On the order of General Leonard Wood, of the Department of the East, received by Colonel Skinnitt inoculation of the field artillery and Signal Corps against typhoid began last night. It was said that the order bore no especial significance, as three injections of serum have to be made.

By nightfall eleven companies of the First Regiment had been mustered in by Captain A. M. Shipp, United States Army. The men are drawn up in company formation and the oath is administered while they hold up their right hands. No enlisted man so far has refused to take the Federal oath.

VON JAGOW'S OPINION.

German Minister Does Not Believe There Will Be War Between U. S. and Mexico

Berlin, July 1.—During an informal conversation yesterday with the minister of foreign affairs, which, not unnaturally, turned largely upon Mexico, and in the course of which his excellency exhibited an extraordinarily well-informed understanding of Latin-American conditions, Minister von Jagow, expressed certain sentiments.

Herr von Jagow refused to believe there is a possibility of the people of the United States and Mexico facing each other in armed conflict.

The minister expressed himself in a sense purely humanitarian giving no opinion whatever reltive to the matters in controversy between the United States and the Carranza government.

The minister repudiated with indignation and ridicule the suggestion that German machinations were in the slightest degree responsible for the disorders on the Mexican border.

"Equally preposterous, no doubt," Herr von Jagow added, "is the suggestion that the Japanese are behind the Mexican troubles."

"It is certain," his excellency continued, "that there are duties which a nation owes itself its dignity and its destiny that may sometimes have been forced by the sword. These each nation must determine for itself. But we over here have seen too much of violence to desire like sad experience for others. The efforts of Germany are ernestly directed toward the limitation, not the extension, of war."

Hopewell's Board of Aldermen, which went into official existence today under the recent act of the Legislature, will itself decide who is to be acting Mayor of the guncotton city in the absence of Mayor Benjamin Harrison. The latter was appointed to this office by Governor Stuart for a term which begins today and expires on Sept. 1, 1920. As major, commanding the First Battalion of the Second Virginia Infantry, already called to the colors, he will not be able to serve.

Dr. Reyburn M. Williams, 32 years old, for the last seven years a resident of Danville, was almost instantly killed yesterday morning, when a horse he was riding in Ballou Park ran away with him. The horse ran out of the gate and as it did so slipped and fell. Dr. Williams was thrown from the saddle and his skull was crushed. Only a few days ago Dr. Williams' engagement to Miss Henrietta Dugan, of Louisville, was announced and they were to have wed wihin a few weeks.

GIVES FORTH AN UNCERTAIN TONE

Mexican Memoradum Savors of Defiance and Denies Charges

ASSAILS U. S. STAND

Resents Rebuke and Document Thought in Washington to Be A Forecast of Reply

Brownsville, Tex. July 1.—Concentration of Carranza troops just below the border is proceeding apace, Fort Brown army officials announced today they had word from Matamoras of the arrival there of General Nafarette and 800 Mexican soldiers sent all the way from Tampico.

Just prior to Nafarettes arrival it was said General Ricaut, whom he succeeded, commandeered seven automobiles, the personal property of wealthy residents, among which was one belonging to an American named Puid.

Battery F, Fifth United States Field Artillery, was encamped a mile outside of Brownsville today. E. Battery of the same regiment, is en route to Rio Grande City today.

Mexico City, July 1.—The Mexico City newspapers today vigorously approved the statement given out by Foreign Secretary Aguilar yesterday, commenting upon and refuting assertions in the American note.

The Foreign office statement was published in the same editions with the American note, which was thus given to the public for the first time.

Mexico City, July 1—The Foreign Office yesterday issued a memorandum in reply to Secretary Lansing's recent note, in which the correctness of assertions in the communication from Washington were repeatedly denied. The memorandum declared that the United States had no right to maintain its armed force on Mexican soil.

The memorandum contains 35 counts. Although not in the form of a direct reply to the Washington note, it is considered equivalent to an answer to the document.

It expresses surprise that the Washington government should have been pained at the tone and the contents of the Carranza document, since it maintains that the United States has sent to the Constitutional government not only one, but many discourteous and even overbearing notes.

Emphatically reiterating the Mexican government's position denying the right of the United States to keep armed bodies in Mexico, the memorandum denies energetically that the Mexican government has protected bandits who had committed depredations in the United States and defies Washington to produce proof of the assertion.

Blame for the Santa Ysabel massacre is placed on the so-called impulsive and irascible disposition of Charles Watson, general manager of Cusihuiriachi Company, and General Scott and General Funston are accused of bad faith and lack of honor in misleading General Obregon in an alleged evasive reply regarding the crossing of American troops into Mexico after the Glenn Springs raid.

The memorandum asserts that while it is true that the United States arrested General Huerta, the motive which prompted this act was not a purpose of aiding the Constitutionalist government, but because the United States feared that General Huerta was plotting with Germany.

The note concludes by declaring that the presence of American troops in Mexico invites rather than prevents bandits raids along the border.

The memorandum was issued at the same time that the Foreign Office authorized publication of Secretary Lansing's recent note.

FOR CLERGYMEN'S SUPPORT

Bishop Lawrence Has Three Million Pledged

New York, July 1—Bishop Lawrence, of Massachusetts, issued the following statement here last night: "The church pension fund is now able to announce two great events in the movement to secure clergymen of the Episcopal Church against want in their old age. The first is the fact that pledges towards the $5,000,000, which must be in hand as a reserve to put the whole scheme on a going basis, have now reached the $3,000,000 mark. It is confidently expected that the full amount will have became pledged and the plan have become effective on or before March 1, 1917.

"The second great event is that as the result of action taken at the spring diocesan conventions throughout the country, all of the 68 dioceses of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the United States, have now formally adopted the church pension plan and pledged to it their earnest and continued support."

STILL TRUST IN GOD

Kaiser Says His Armies Will Remain Victorious With Aid of Deity

New Yor, July 1—Berlin papers which have just been received here describe Emperor William's recent visit to the eastern front.

The news of the Kaiser's coming reached the little town near von Hindenburg's headquarters in the eleventh hour, but the buildings were hurriedly decorated with flags and the streets strewn with flowers. A triumphal arch had been erected and when the imperial train pulled into the station that evening amidst the thunder of saluting guns, the monarch was greeted with a gorgeous reception.

The Kaiser was officially received by Field Marshal von Hindenburg and the latter's chief of staff, Lieut. Gen. von Ludendorf. A company of landstrum paid the military honors. Followed by a huge throng of civilians the Kaiser and his suite proceeded to von Hindenburg's headquarters through streets lined with troops standing at arms..

After the dinner Field Marshal von Hindenburg said.

"I can assure Your Majesty that the old watchword of our fathers: 'Forward with God for King and Fatherland, for Emperor and Empire', is deeply given in our soldier hearts"

The Kaiser replied as follows:

"We are fighting against a superiority. That is nothing new to us. The great king set us brilliant example in that Providence has willed it once more—and it is well. For thus we are compelled to concentrate all our energy and ability to extraordinary deeds and achievements My armies are, and will remain victorious and, with God's aid will procure for us a peace such as we all strive for."

FRENCH WIN BACK THIAUMONT WORK

Recapture Field Fortress That Marked Teuton Hightide

DRIVE GAINS FORCE

British Keep Up Assaults and Heavy Guns Hammer Furiously Away on Belgian Line of Battle.

London, July 1—British troops have captured Serre and Montauban, it was semi-officially announced this afternoon.

The Anglo-French troops are fighting at Mametz and Contal Malson part of which the French hold.

French troops have captured Carlu and the Savier wood and have advanced two kilometers (about and one-fifth miles).

London, July 1—British troops have broken the German forward defense an a sixteen mile front, the war office announced today in the first brief statement on the beginning of the great oensive. French troops, attacking at the same time penetrated deep into German trenches.

"North of the Somme, in an attack in conjunction with the French forces, the British have broken the German forward defenses on a sixteen-mile front," said the official statement. "The French attack on the immediate right was equally satisfactory."

London, July 1—The long-expected British offensive began at 7:30 o'clock this morning with a tremendous smash against the German lines on a twenty mile front north of the Somme. This information was contained in brief special bulletins from army headquarters today.

The British swept forward with a rush, capturing some enemy front line trenches. Many German prisoners were taken. The British attacks were continuing with greatest violence at the hour when the dispatches were filed.

The first reports were flashed to London shortly before noon, Newspaper extras were grabbed eagerly in the clubs, hotels, on the streets, everywhere. Within a few minutes the word spread through London:

"The big push has begun."

London, July 1—Fierce fighting on both east and west fronts, with the capture by the Russians of Kalomea an important railroad centre in East Galicia, and of the town of Obertine south of the Dniester river, and villages south and north of that point is reported. Vienna admits the loss of Kalomea, saying the city was evacuated after a most determined resistance under pressure of superior forces.

The Allies are also launching attacks along the entire western front, the desperate character of which is indicated by the recapture of a fortified works in the first line of the French trenches east of Hill 304, which the Germans had taken a short time before. Paris also reports that the Thiaumont works, northeast of Verdun, which the Germans had held for some time, is again in French hands.

From Rome comes official information of the Italian offensive on the Trentino front continuing unchecked, all of which suggests that the long expected concerted drive by the Allies is in full swing.

The campaign on the southwestern front, according to Petrograd, continues to hinge on the operations on the Stokhod line, where the Grmans have concentrated against the right wing of General Brusiloff's army and are stubbornly defending Kovel against a Russian advance. It remains to be seen whether a successful German resistance at this point will check further progress by the southern part of General Brusiloff's forces, which, having widened the breach made at Czernowitz, moved steadily on Kolomea.

The occupation of this city with its five railways and six high roads threatens the rear of the Austrian army and constitutes a growing menace to Lemberg from the South and also places General Von Bothmer's army on the Stripa in a precarious position.

Obertine, also reported captured, is 14 miles northeast of Kolomea. The occupation of this town by the Russians represents a further gain in the new drive over a 25 mile front.

PRESIDENT IN NEW YORK

Ready to Sacrifice His Own Political Fortunes to Carry Out His Convictions

New York, July 1—President Wilson made it plain in his speech at the New York Press Club banquet last night that he will not countenance a war with Mexico until there is no other alternative for settling the border troubles. Again he declared that he was ready to sacrifice his own political fortunes in order to carry out his convictions as to what would be the just course to pursue in the situation.

The President's audience, composed of newspaper men, State and municipal political leaders and others prominent in public life, signified their indorsement of his position by repeated outbursts of applause. When he asked if the glory of America would be enhanced by a war of conquest in Mexico, shouts of "no" came from all parts of the banquet hall. A similar response was made to his query whether it is America's duty to "carry self-defense to the point of dictation into the affairs of another people."

CONTRADICTIONS IN NEW STATUTE

Conflicting Provisions as to Manner of Appointment

RECORD EXAMINERS

Attorney General Pollard May Be Asked to Construe Provisions of the New Act.

Richmond, July 1—With spirited contests in at least four judicial circuits, and a vacancy to be filled in another, the State Tax Board will meet at 11 o'clock this morning in the Governor's office, to determine, if possible, just what are its powers in the matter of appointing examiners of records. Its ablest legal advisers have puzzled over the act of March 22, 1916, which undertakes to make examiners appointive and removable by the board, since it became law on June 17, without agreeing as to its meaning.

Until this act is construed, the examinership contests must remain unsettled. The tax board will probably requisition the services of Attorney-General Pollard in the disentanglement of what appears to be the most contradictory piece of legislation enacted by the last General Assembly.

This remarkable act became law on June 17, 1916. Yet in the very beginning, it directs that the State Tax Board shall appoint an examiner of records for each judicial circuit of the State on or before May 1, 1916, and every two years thereafter. As if this were in itself not enough to try a lawyer's soul, the same section directs that when so appointed he shall be appointed for a term of—years. Apparently it had been the patron's intention to have the term of years specified before the bill left the committee. It was never inserted, however, and as the act reads, no term whatever is prescribed.

The contradictions do not by any means end here. Having opened with the direction that the examiners shall be appointed every two years, the act proceeds in the same section to direct that "if any or all of the present examiners of records are acceptable to the said Advisory Board on Taxation, the board shall, by resolution, so declare, in which event any of said officers declared to be acceptable shall remain in office for a term of four years from May 1, 1916."

But there is still another section which contributes its quota of confusion. It provides that the terms of examiners appointed by the Circuit Courts of the Commonwealth—the examiners now serving in other words— shall expire on May 30, 1916, or as soon thereafter as their successors shall be appointed and have qualified.

Apparently designed to bring to an end the term of all present examiners of records in order that they may receive their now terms at the hands of the Tax Board and thus come definitely under its authority, the act directs that their terms shall expire on May 30, 1916. In an opening section, however, the act directed the appointment of examiners on May 1, 1916—twenty nine days before the date fixed by the same act for the expiration of the terms of the incumbents. Incidentally, the act could neither direct an election on May 1, nor an expiration on May 30, since it did not itself become law until June 17.

These are some of the incongruities that the Tax Board will grapple with today in an attempt to arrive at the true meaning of this disordered piece of legislation. The whole matter will in all probability be referred to the Attorney General.

He was born at Aberdeen, Ohio, but removed to Washington at an early date in his life.

SERMON ON REPENTANCE.

Evavngelist Gibson Delivers Strong Appeal at the Gospel Tent Last Night.

Another congregation of interested listeners gathered in the gospel tent on north Washington street last night. Evangelist Gibson spoke on repentance, and made an earnest appeal to all present to bring forth fruits meet for such occasion. The speaker quoted many portions of the Bible bearing upon this subject, and urged all present to embrace the offers of the gospel. Repentance is a word which does not carry the same meaning to all who at times have their interest aroused in spiritual matters. Some suppose that it is the work of days, weeks, and months, when, in fact, it may be accomplished in the twinkling of the eye. The New Testament was written in Greek, and the word which is translated repent simply means a change of mind. To revise our opinion is often the work of an instant, Moody once said many people were Christians and didn't know it.

"The Judgment" will be the theme of the discourse tomorrow night, at 7:45 oclock. A song service will begin at 7:30, when special songs will be rendered. Chorister Ellers will sing "A Dream of Paradise" by Gray

POWER OF THE BIBLE

Twenty-five years ago Robert G. Ingersoll in one of his addresses said the Bible would cease to be read within ten years. The fact is apparent that more people are studying the book now than at any time during the past third of a century.

A simple-minded old woman who was well acquainted with the story of the infant Moses being placed in a basket of bulrushes and set adrift in the river Nile said: "I imagine the feeling of the mother of the little boy. I can see her now go to the chimney and take down the Bible and read those comforting words of St. Peter—'Cast they burden upon him for he careth for you'. The innocent believer in all that has been written did not know that the Bible was an unknown book at the time the great Jewish lawgiver was born.

The power of the scriptures has been realized by the many since the writings were first published. A man of considerable ability once wrote a book on the power of the Psalms in which he showed that certain great ones of the arth, whose names have gone down in history as diplomats, officials and successful business men, drew their inspiration from the book of books. A merchant in New York who amassed a colossal fortune told a friend on one occasion that he obtained his business ideas from the Book of Proverbs exclusively.

An address on the Bible was delivered recently before the members of the Young Men's Christian Association at Spencer, Mass. Among other things the speaker said:

The Bible is a book which has been refuted, demolished, overthrown, and exploded more times than any other book you ever heard of. Every little while somebody starts up and upsets this book; and it is like upsetting a solid cube of granite. It is just as big one way as the other; and when you have upset it, it is right side up; and when you overturn it again, it is right side up still. Every little while somebody blows up the Bible; but when it comes down it always lights on its feet, and runs faster than ever through the world.

The overthrow of the Bible century ago, in Voltaire's time—entirely demolished the whole thing. "In less than a hundred years," said Voltaire, "Christianity will have been swept from existence, and will have passed into history." Infidelity ran riot through France, red handed and impious. France still feels the curse and blight of its influence. That century has passed away. Voltaire has "passed into history," and not very respectable history either. Few infidels would care to read publicly Voltaire's biography as written by a fellow infidel; but the Word of God "liveth and abideth forever." Thomas Paine demolished the Bible; but after he had crawled despairingly into a drunkard's grave in 1809, the book took such a leap that since that time more than twenty times as many copies have been scattered throughout the world as ever were made before since the creation of man.

For a book that has been exploded so many times, this book still shows signs of considerable life. I have heard of a man traveling round the country exploding this book, and showing up "the mistakes of Moses", at about two hundred dollars a night. It is easy work to abuse Moses at two hundred dollars a night especially as Moses is dead and cannot talk back. It would be worth something after hearing the infidel on "the mistakes of Moses," to hear Moses on "the mistakes of the infidel." When Moses could talk back, he was rather a difficult man to deal with. Pharaoh tried it, and met with poor success. Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, and, it is said, found a grave in the Red Sea. Korah, Dathan, and Abiram tried it, and went down so deep that they have not yet got back. But now Moses is dead, and it is easy to abuse him. It does not take a very brave beast to kick a dead lion.

ANOTHER FLYING DUTCHMAN

Admiral Winslow reports that his fleet has made a complete survey of the west coast of Mexico and has ben unable to find any trace of the Japanese warships whose presence there was reported a few days ago This is the third or fourth time in the last twelve months that Japanese warships have been reported hovering around Mexico, with obviously felonious intent, and every time it has turned out to be a phantom fleet, existing only in excited imaginations.

The Baltimore Sun in this connection says former Congressman Hobson has been training us so long to expect something dreadful from Japan that a great many of us have got into the habit of taking a fearful joy in the terror which is his speciality, like children shivering with delight over a hair-raising ghost story. But it is as disappointing to the hysterical to find that this yellow peril fails to materialize as it is to the lady who can never discover under her bed the villanious man who, she has come to believe, has designs upon her peace and happiness.

Sometimes a patient femine searcher does find a man under her bed. Perhaps in the course of two or three generations we shall find a Japanese fleet hiding at some remote point on our cost. But we are very much afraid that the youngest of our alarmists will not live to see the day to which they have been looking forward with so much pleasing horror.

SAYS WORLD IS PAGAN

That "Truth" should be the motto of the churches and especially of the religious activities among young people was the gist of the addresses made Thursday at the Young People's Christian Union convention in Philadelphia. Rev. Paul Calhoun, spoke on "Essentials in Witnessing."

The church of today, he said, could well afford to imitate the principles of the admen in their formal adoption of "Truth" as their official motto. He said the world today was pagan in its tendencies, manifesting a Godless indifference to the Scriptures, to religious services, or to anything of a spiritual character. Sunday schools young people's organizations and the divers auxiliary societies about the Word of God, he said, forgot their work and spent their time in frivolity and worldliness while the congregations were occupied entirely too much with expensive choirs and high class oratorical preachers.

THE INVINCIBLE MUSCOVITES

Kolomea, which, with Kovel, is the heart of the transportation system of the Austro-Hungarian forces, is about to fall. The advance of the invincible Slavs has ben marked by the taking of another ten thousand men, making more than two hundred thousand men and officers thus far captured in the advance of the Russians. There is no limit to put upon the powess of warriors like these, who in numbers, in daring and in equipment appear to be more than a match for the Teutons.

A cotemporary in speaking of the new drive of the Czar says the unflagging work of the Slavs commands the admiration even of their foes. They have known no rest and they have given no rest to their foes. The capture of Kolomea will mark the collapse of the entire Southern Galicia defense scheme, and the capture of the Austrian army now moving toward Transylvania.

With such a prospect the Slavs know no defeat and can meet no successful check. Germany, despite its inadequate reinforcements, is forced to se its ally beaten back and its own lines battered by the soldiers of the Czar. These are bent upon cleaning up their section of the war zone and they appear to be fully capable of so doing.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Four persons are dead and one injured seriously as a result of a severe electrical storm which swept over central Indiana late yesterday.

The Greek Government has consented to the Entente's wish to hasten the demobilization of its army. The army will be entirely disbanded by the end of July.

George E. Hunt, of Boston, was elected supreme counseler of the United Commercial Travelers of America at the closing session yesterday at Columbus, Ohio.

The police regulation of the District of Columbia which prohibits the sale or discharge of firecrackers, blank cartrdges or other fireworks, in that jurisdiction, will be rigidly enforced.

Capt. Hans Tauscher, was acquitted yesterday in New York of the charge of having conspired with Capt. Franz von Papen, Wolf von Igel, and Horst von Der Goltz, to blow up the Welland Canal in Canada.

A Mexican line rider of the Carranza customs service was killed it is said Thursday night by a squad of American soldiers, who fired across the Rio Grande into Mexican territory, near Ysleta, 12 miles east of El Paso.

Four Villa bandits who took part in the Columbus raid were hanged in the county jail at Deming, N. M., yesterday. The men were put to death in pairs. This completes the disposition of the cases of Columbus raiders.

The third serious fire within a fortnight on the dock front of Marseille caused extensive damage yesterday. The fire is believed to have been incendiary, set for the purpose of injuring shipping and the extensive warehouses for the storage of oil, alcohol and other supplies for which Marseille is the principal Mediterranean port of entrance.

A resolution requesting the President to ask the British government for a stay of execution of Sir Roger Casement, the Irish leader convicted of reason Thursday in London, pending presentation of new facts, were introduced in the Senate yesterday by Senator Martine, of New Jersey. Immediate consideration was sought, but on insistence of Senator Stone it was referred to the foreign relations committee.

After 23 years of unsuccessful effort to establish a proprietary news gathering and distributing organization in opposition to the cooperative form of the Associated Press, the New York Sun has been sold to Frank A. Munsey, a member of the Associated Press, and beginning Monday next, will no longer try to gather its own news and will receivev the service of htedominant organization.

An official statement issued in Berlin says: "Thursday night German torpedoboats attacked Russian forces, consisting of an armored cruiser, a protected cruiser and five destroyres, between Havringe and Landsort (islands in the Baltic Sea off Soderman Land, Sweden). After a short engagement the Russians withdrew. Despite a heavy bombardment we sustained no casualties nor damage."

Germany apparently is unwilling to reply to the informal request of the United States for information concerning the punishment meted out to the German submarine commander who was responsible for the torpedoing of the channel packet Sussex, and Secretary of State Lansing now contemplates making the request formal and emphatic. American Ambassador Gerard at Berlin has so far been unable to learn what the punishment was or whether it was ever put into effect.

Yesterday, fourth day of the British bombardment of the German positions, which continues along the whole line without cessation day and night, cutting barbed wire entanglements, demolishing first and second lines of German trenches and placing curtains of fire on the roads and communicating trenches. Considerably more than 1,000,000 shells a day are being expended, and there seems to be no limit to the supply of them.

WILL TATTOOED ON BACK

Unique Testament Found Pick'd into The Cuticle of Man Whom Footpads Shot

Pittsburgh, July 1—The most remarkable method of executing and filing a will was unearthed here today when Dr. Schildreker, the Coroner's physician, discovered the last testament of George Ballantyne Hood (who was shot and fatally injured some time ago by footpads) tattooed on his back.

The will which was surrounded by beautiful scroll work read:

"All my earthly possessions I bequeath to my beloved mother."

At first it was thought that Hood had died intestate. After the body had been brought to the Morgue, Dr. Schildreker, in performing a post-mortem examination, found the tattooed will.

With the exception of his face, hands and feet, Hood's entire body was covered with tattooing. Artistic likenesses of women, animals, the Crucifixion and other des igns predominated.

Hood months ago sustained gunshot wounds which caused his death. Three footpads held him up and attempted to rob him of diamonds, worth $5000 which he always wore. Hood resisted the highwaymen, and in the fight was shot through the chest and abdomen. He never fully recovered from his wounds.

The mother of Hood is dead, but distant relatives are believed to live in this territory.

INJURED TRAINMAN GRITTY.

Heel Cut Off and Leg Mangled, He Signals "Go Ahead."

Columbus, Ind., July 1,—Ben H. Parker, of this city, a breakeman on the Louisville dvision of the Pennsylvania lines, when he slipped and fell under a freight train near Greenwood, yesterday, showed real grit and nerve.

The engineer saw him drop, and stepped the train as quckly as possible. When he looked back, Parker was sitting up and giving the go-ahead signal, as if nothing had happened. The muscles of the right leg were crushed and one heel cut off. He was taken to Greenwood Hospital. It will be several days before he can be removed to his home.

MEXICANS TAKE $500,000

Gold and Silver Bullion Owned by Americans is Seized

Washington, D. C., July 1—The State Department was officially advised yesterday that gold and silver bullion belonging to Americans and seized by local Mexican authorities at Manzanillo, totaling nearly $500-000. The seizures were reported to have begun before the Carrizal incident. A protest already has been made to General Carranza.

Reports of continued seizures in various parts of Mexico reached the State Department during the day. In most cases the property taken had been left by Americans fleeing from that country. There have been no indications that the local authorities acted on instructions from Mexico City, but no repily has been received to representations made several days ago to General Carranza.

Copenhagen, July 1—Herr Ballin, general manager of the Hamburg-American Line, says his company is building a turbine ship, the Bismarck, of 56,000 tons, which will be the world's greatest steamer. It also is building a steamer, to be called the Tirpitz, of 30,000 tons and three other vessels of 22,000 tons each.

At Bremen there are building nine vessels, four of them having a carrying capacity of 18,000 tons, being the world's greatest freight steamers; at Flensburg, two steamers of 13,000 tons and three large passenger and freight steamers, and at Geeste Munde two freight steamers of 17,000 tons each for traffic through the Panama Canal.

The Hamburger-South America Line is building a vessel, to be known as the Capt. Polonio, a sister ship to theauxiliary cruiser Capt. Trafalgar, while the North German Lloyd is building two fast steamers, the Columbus and Hindenburg, of 30,000 tons each; the Muchen and eppelin, of 16,-000 tons each, and twelve vessels of 12,000 tons each.

Twenty four ships of from 9,000 to 13,000 tons are being built for other lines.

U-BOAT LINER REPORTED IN

New York, July 1—According to the Trans-Atlantic Trust Company, unofficial fiscal agent in the United States for Austria-Hungary, the German submarine long reported en route to the United States has actually arrived and is now concealed somewhere in Chesapeake Bay.

The announcement was made in an advertisement inserted in a Hungarian newspaper today offering to transmit money to Hungary via the vessel. According to this ad., the U-boat arrived from Hamburg at a point near Baltimore on Thursday morning.

Officials of the bank refused to discuss the matter, intimating that secrecy as to the undersea boat's hiding place was necessary in order that there should be no clash with the American Government over its status.

HEALTH LAWS OF STATE

Republication of Statute Regulating Slaughter of Animals For Food

Benjamin L. Purcell, Commissioner of the State Health Department, has requested papers in Virginia to publish the law regulating slaughter houses. The warm season is now upon us, and close attention and observation of all requirements in this line should be urged upon all engaged in slaughtering animals for human consumption. The following extracts from the acts should suffice:

Every building or room used as a slaughter house, abattoir, packing house, sausage factory, rendering plant, or similar establishment shall be properly lighted, drained, plumbed, ventilated, and conducted with due regard for the purity and wholesomeness of the meat food products therein produced and with strict regard to the influences of such conditions upon the health of the operatives, employees and clerks.

The floors, side walls, ceilings, receptacles, implements, machinery, and the clothing of the operatives, shall at all times be kept in a clean, healthful and sanitary condition. The doors and all the windows during the fly season, shall be fitted with self closing screen doors and wire window screens of not coarser than fourteen-mesh wire gauze, and the meat food products in the process of preparation, packing, storing or distribution, shall be securely protected from flies, dust, dirt and from all other foreign or injurious contamination.

The sleeping places for persons employed in such establishments shall be separate and apart from the room in which meat food products are manufactured, packed, stored or distributed. No person shall be permitted to work in any such establishment who is known to be afflicted with an contagious or infectious disease, or any skin disease. Every such establishment shall be provided with a convenient wash room and toilet of sanitary construction, but such toilet shall be entirely separate and apart from any room used for the preparation, manufacture or storage of meat food products. Every room or compartment in which meat or meat food products are prepared, cured, rendered, stored, packed, or otherwise handled, shall be free from odor from toilets, catch basins, tank rooms, casing departments, or from hides, or other injurious contamination. All water and ice used in the preparation of carcasses, meats or meat food products shall be pure, clean and wholesome.

VIRGINIA NEWS

The Rev. Warren W. Walsh, 70 years old, died yesterday at his home near Fry's Spring, near Charlottesville, after a brief illness.

President George W. Stevens yesterday officially announced in Richmond the appointment of his son, J. Paul Stevens, as general manager of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company.

Governor Harrington of Maryland and Governor Stuart, of Virginia, will attend the conference of the Maryland and Virginia Conservation Commissions to be held on the Potomac river July 19 and 20. The conference will deal with plans for co-operative protection of the fish and shellfish in the Potomac.

Mr. M. E. Church has sold his interest in the Falls Church Telephone Company and the Leesburg Telephone Company, to the Chesapeake and Potomac Company, of Washington, D. C., for the sum of $210,000. This sale affects the telephone system of all of Northern Virginia.

The Monticello Guard having left Charlottesville for Richmond and the means of schooling volunteers in that place having ceased, a mass-meeting of citizens was held yesterday morning in the Courthouse, at which a company of volunteers was organized. Over 50 young men of military age handled in their names and will begin drilling at once.

A meeting was held last night in Cabell Hall, University of Virginia, in the interest of establishing a coordinate college in connection with the university. It was the first gun in the new fight which will be waged before the next Legislature to give the young women of Virginia the same privileges accorded to the young men to obtain a higher education. The bill to make the college possible nearly became a law in the last Legislature and there is little doubt that it will be favorably considered by both bodies of the next Assembly.

W. D. Hundley, whose home is in Campbell county, about five miles from Lynchs, on the Southern Railway, was shot, probably fatally, yesterday by his 14 year old son, who claims he shot his father in defense of his mother. The wounded man and his family were engaged in a quarrel, when the son secured a shotgun and fired both barrels at his father, both loads taking effect in the man's body. His right thigh was badly lacerated and his right arm almost shot away. When found the man was about a mile from the house. He had gone in search of help, but became too weak to go further. A physcian found Hundley and took him in his buggy and carried him back home. Upon arriving there no member of the family was to be found, and Hundley said that his entire family deserted him shortly after the shooting.
